MANTRAS ARE MAGIC

First time I was deeply touched by a mantra, I was on the island of Bali. Early in the morning I had taken my bike to do a yoga class in Ubud. On the mat I gently let my body fall from one asana into another while overlooking the green and luscious rice fields, when suddenly from the deep silence the teacher started singing the om namah shivaya mantra. I remember it gave me goosebumps and felt as if my body extended. It set me off on a journey of discovering the beauty and power of mantras. When the ukulele stole my heart and I got uked it was only a matter of time before I put these two together and started using the ukulele for singing mantras and teaching other yogis how to do it as well.

Together with composer Laurens Joënsen we have created new melodies with ancient and holy Vedic Sanskrit lyrics, played on acoustic instruments. You can play along in the most simple way, you'll find the (ukulele) chords for every mantra in this booklet. You can sing along with the words, or you can just listen and see where the magic mantras take you. You can't sing and think at the same time. Every mantra has it's own quality. May they bring you back to the simplicity of life.

Love, Liselotte

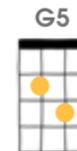

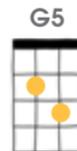

“When you’re blessed by Ganesh, then you can travel, on a sacred journey to an inner temple. He paves the path that leads to the soul. And he’s known for removing all obstacles. Now some may think it’s illogical, a myth, or it’s just philosophical, but Ganesh makes everything possible because elephant power’s unstoppable!”

GANESHA SHARANAM

Goed/Joensen

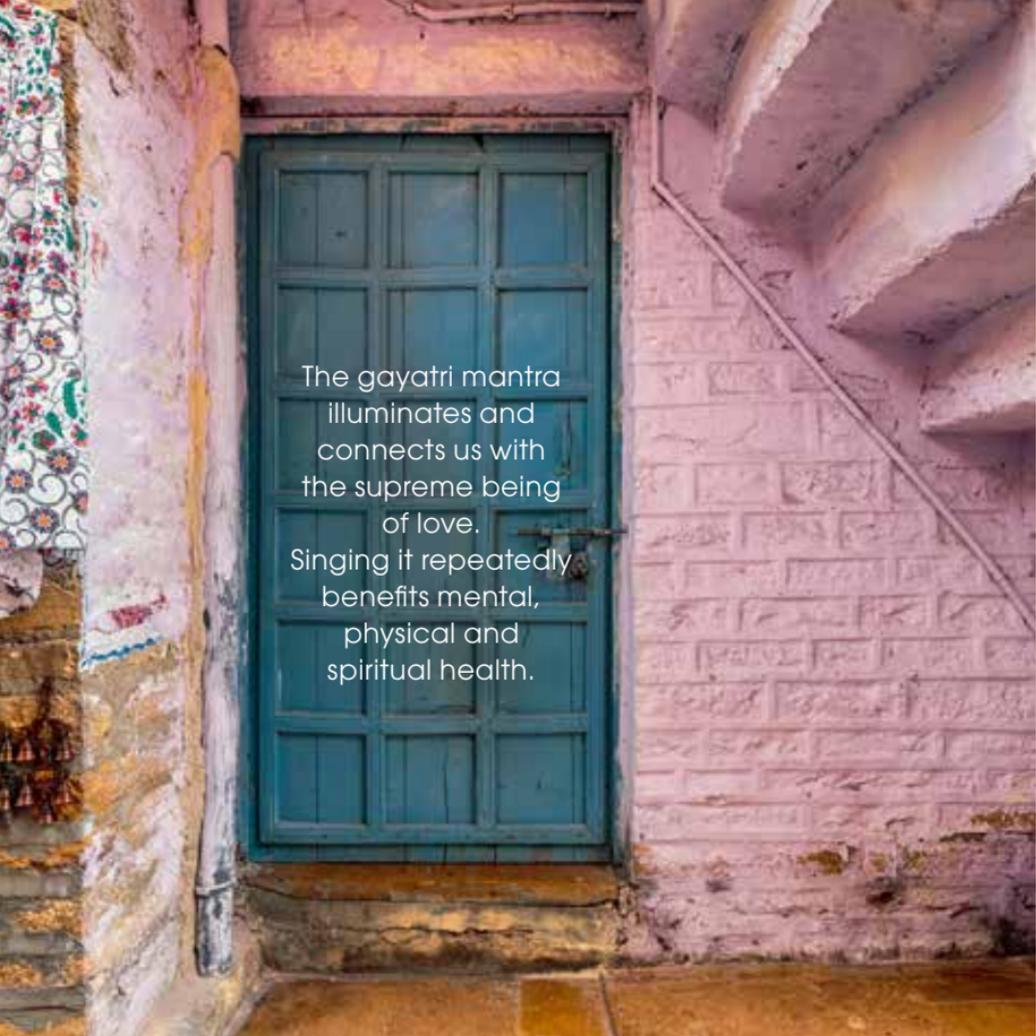

When playing mute the A-string

Jaya jai ganesha ganesha sharanam (4x)

Ganesha sharanam Sharanam Ganesha

The gayatri mantra illuminates and
connects us with
the supreme being of love.

Singing it repeatedly benefits mental,
physical and
spiritual health.

HEY MA DURGA

Goed/Joensen

Hey ma durga

Durga rakshamam

Durga pahimam

(Hey, hey, he-ey)

Durga is a badass, demon-fighting goddess. She manifests fearlessness and patience, and never loses her sense of humor, even during battles of epic proportion. She carries a different weapon in each of her ten arms and rides a tiger or lion. If you're ever in need of help, be sure to call upon her.

Moola means root and singing this mantra will bring you back to the root of what you are which is truth, consciousness and bliss. This is the mantra of the Oneness University in India and I dedicate this one to Amma & Bhagavan.

Greet Shiva,
the God of creation
and destruction
to honor the circle of life.
Like a dancer you can move along with the transformational powers
Shiva dances the dance
of creation, the dance
of destruction, the dance
of solace and the dance of liberation. All that has been made will be unmade.
All that has been destroyed
will be resurrected.

THANK YOU...==

Laurens Joënsen for your incredible talent and making this first magic mantra journey so wonderful. When we first shared the idea of this album with you, you were excited right away. You believe, like Einstein, that if at first the idea is not absurd, then there is no hope for it and knew exactly how to turn our crazy idea into something magical. Who needs yoga or meditation if you play the guitar like you do? It's clear you have a direct line with the heavens above.

Barbara Tammes for believing in me and keeping me company on this crazy and wonderful uked-journey that we're on together. You were the first person I've shared my mantra music with and you've been my biggest fan ever since. This album wouldn't be here if it wasn't for you, your encouragement and your inspiring and rock-steady belief that you can create anything you can imagine. I hope we will keep inspiring many more people and sing many more My Sweet Lords together.

Jasper Goedman, Maarten Vinkenoog, Kasper Frenkel, Vera de Bie, Lottie Hellingman, Jeroen Schmoll, Jelle Huiberts, Tammo Kersbergen.

Ganesha and Amma & Bhagavan for staying close to my heart.
